The Gum Wall

The Seattle Gum Wall has been gathering gum since the early 1990s. The tradition began when people waiting for shows at nearby theatre would stick gum to the wall and coins to the gum. (You won't see a lot of coins on the wall these days, just gum). Theater workers tried to keep the wall clean, but it didn't work. The gum stuck—literally.
